Plaintiff,

-against-

AFFIRMATION IN REPLY TO PLAINTIFF'S AFFIRMATION IN OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

ANTHONY J MARMO

Defendant.

-----X
State of New York)

ss.

County of Nassau)

JONATHAN A, SCHWARTZ, ESQ., an attorney admitted to the practice of law in the Courts of the State of New York, hereby affirms pursuant to CPLR § 2106 and under penalties of perjury that:

1. I am a staff attorney with Nassau/Suffolk Law Services Committee, Inc., attorneys for Defendant Anthony J. Marmo (hereinafter "Defendant") herein, and as such,
I am fully familiar with the facts and circumstances of this case, and the proceedings heretofore had herein.

2. I submit this Affirmation in Reply to Plaintiff's Affirmation in Opposition to Defendant's Motion to Dismiss (hereinafter "Plaintiff's Opposition") seeking to dismiss the instant action as personal jurisdiction was not obtained over the Defendant pursuant to CPLR 3211 (a)(8) and 308, and Plaintiff lacks legal capacity and/or standing pursuant to CPLR 3211 (a)(3). At this time your Affirmant requests leave of the Court to cite law in lieu of submitting a separate memorandum of law.

3. The procedural posture of the instant action is as follows: The instant case was commenced by Plaintiff with the filing of the Summons and Verified Complaint. Defendant filed a Motion to Dismiss the instant action due to lack of personal jurisdiction pursuant to CPLR (a)(8) and/or lack of legal capacity and/or standing pursuant to CPLR 3211 (a)(3). Plaintiff's Counsel served an Affirmation in Opposition (Hereinafter referred to as "Plaintiff's Opposition"). This Affirmation is in reply to Plaintiff's Opposition. It should be noted that Plaintiff's Counsel is incorrect with her assertion in paragraph 4 of Plaintiff's Opposition stating that Defendant's Motion seeks to vacate a judgment; no judgment exists at the present time, and accordingly, cannot be vacated. Defendant's instant Motion seeks to dismiss the instant action.

PERSONAL JURISDICTION WAS NOT OBTAINED OVER THE DEFENDANT

4. Plaintiff's Counsel predicates her argument that service was proper in the instant action even if the process server misstated the color of the skin of the person who alleged received service pursuant to CPLR § 308(2). Plaintiff's Counsel also stated in paragraph 7 of Plaintiff's Opposition "...that individuals of every race can appear to have brown skin." Defendant, in his Affidavit in Support of the instant Motion, affirmatively denied being told "that any legal papers were dropped off for [him]." The Defendant also stated that the sole method whereby he became aware of the instant action was by receiving copies of the Summons and Verified Complaint in the mail. This affirmative denial triggers the necessity of a traverse hearing (See Dime Sav. Bank of New York v. Steinman, 206 A.D.2d 404, 405, 613 N.Y.S.2d 945, 946 (N.Y.A.D. 2nd Dept, 1994, holding that “The sworn denials of the appellants that they had been served with process pursuant to CPLR 308(2), as alleged by the plaintiff’s process server, requires a hearing to determine whether they were in fact properly served...”). In addition, as discussed below in paragraph 6, there are factual issues which raises serious concerns about this process server which your Affirmant believes must be considered.

5. I would like to reiterate a point made in the Memorandum of Law in support of Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss: It is irrelevant that the Defendant received actual notice of the instant action; if service was not made in accordance with statute, personal jurisdiction has not been acquired over the Defendant (See Macchia v. Russo, 67 N.Y.2d 592, 505 N.Y.S.2d 591 (N.Y., 1986), holding “Notice received by means other than those authorized by statute does not bring a defendant within the jurisdiction of the court.” [citing Feinstein v Bergner, 48 NY2d 234, 241; McDonald v Ames Supply Co., 22 NY2d 111, 115]). I would also like to note that in order for service to be completed via CPLR 308(2), the summons must be delivered “...to a person of suitable age and discretion ... and by either mailing the summons to the person to be served at his or her last known residence or by mailing the summons by first class mail to the person to be served at his or her actual place of business...” (emphasis added).

6. The process server utilized by Plaintiff (Nassar Atrash of Samserv) for service of the Summons and Verified Complaint in the instant action has demonstrated a pattern of alleged service of process which raises serious questions. The attached sixty-five (65) Affidavits of Service (all from Nassar Atrash) (copies attached as Exhibit “A”) were reviewed and copied by your Affirmant and another attorney on September 15, 2010 and September 16, 2010. Your Affirmant believes that the annexed Affidavits raise questions serious enough to warrant at least a traverse hearing.

7. Mr. Atrash, the process server, swore that he spoke with a person at the defendant's residence on every attempt made in all sixty-five (65) cases. However, the process server only achieved personal service on two (2) cases, with the remaining sixty-three (63) being served on a person of suitable age and discretion. In none of the sixty-five (65) cases was it stated that no one was home to accept service, which would have required "nail and mail" service. Additionally, the process server claimed to have found an individual at home during the first service attempt on all of the cases (emphasis added). Mr. Atrash swore in fifty-seven (57) Affidavits that the person spoken to had black hair and swore in forty-five (45) Affidavits that the person spoken to had brown skin. Additionally, he swore in fifty (50) cases that the person he spoke to either refused to divulge their name or he listed them as "Mr./Ms./Mrs. [last name of defendant]". A review of the affidavits indicates that on March 24, 2010, Mr. Atrash swore to having served twenty-two (22) Affidavits in four (4) hours and forty-two (42) minutes, beginning at 6:11 A.M., travelled 84.7 miles (printout of Google Maps route information with times added by Affirmant attached as Exhibit "B"), and spoke with individuals at all of the residences, as well as presumably complying with requirements such as filling out a logbook. On March 30, 2010, during rainy conditions (as indicated in Exhibit "D" for Shirley, NY), Mr. Atrash swore that he served six (6) defendants over three (3) hours and twelve (12) minutes, beginning at 6:33 A.M., travelled 74.4 miles (printout of Google Maps route information with times added by Affirmant and "Weather Underground")

(wunderground.com) weather history page with specific times noted by Affirmant for Shirley, NY attached as Exhibits "C" and "D", respectively), and spoke with individuals at all of the residences, as well as presumably complying with requirements such as filling out a logbook. It raises concerns that not only the timing appears implausible, but that in sixty-three (63) of the sixty-five (65) cases, the defendant was not home; yet in none of the cases was the home empty requiring "nail and mail" service. When combined with the other issues raised by names, description, etc., at the very minimum, should this matter not be dismissed outright, a traverse hearing is warranted. (emphasis added)

PLAINTIFF HAS FAILED TO ATTACH DOCUMENTATION DEMONSTRATING LEGAL CAPACITY AND/OR STANDING TO COMMENCE THE INSTANT ACTION

8. The documents attached by Plaintiff in attempt to demonstrate proper standing to commence the instant action fail to demonstrate same. Plaintiff introduces an "Affidavit of Claim" allegedly executed by an employee of Plaintiff. Said Affidavit of Claim is irrelevant as it is virtually impossible, based on the information in said Affidavit, that she has any personal knowledge of any alleged account that she alleges that Defendant had with Plaintiff's alleged predecessor-in-interest. (See Rushmore Recoveries X, LLC v. Skolnick, 15 Misc.3d 1139(A), 841 N.Y.S.2d 823 (District Court, Nassau County, New York 2007), holding "While [Affiant] attempts to portray himself as one who is "personally familiar with, and hav[ing] knowledge of, the facts and proceedings relating by delivering therat a true copy of each to MR. CUIFFO, an individual of suitable age and discretion. That individual was also asked by deponent whether said premises was the recipient's actual place of Private Residence, reply was affirmative.

The person served was Male with Black hair and Brown skin, 36-50 years old, 5'9"-6'0", 161-200 Lbs.

On Wednesday, the 19th day of May, 2010 I served a copy of the papers stated herein by mail in a first class post paid envelope that bore the legend "Personal and Confidential" and did not indicate on the outside that the content was from an attorney or concerned an action against the recipient. The envelope was properly addressed to the defendants last known address at: 303 15TH AVE , WEST BABYLON, NY, 11704. Said envelope was deposited in an official depository under the exclusive care and custody of the U.S. Postal Service.

I asked the person served and upon information and belief I aver that the defendant is not in the military service and is not dependent on any person in the military service as that term is defined in either the State or Federal Statutes.
